573 Q: Let's discuss the Jeffrey Epstein case. What was the primary focus of your investigation? 574 A: Our primary focus was to uncover the extent of Epstein's illegal activities, including the sexual exploitation of minors, and identify any individuals involved.

575 Q: Were there any specific leads that directed your attention towards certain individuals?

576 A: Yes, we followed leads from various sources, including testimonies, flight logs, and other evidence that suggested the involvement of different individuals in Epstein's activities.

577 Q: Can you elaborate on the flight logs and how they played a role in your investigation?

578 A: Flight logs from Epstein's private jet were crucial in establishing connections between him and various influential individuals. They helped us track the movements of people associated with him.

579 Q: Did you come across any mention of a man named Henk Kramer during your investigation?

580 A: Henk Kramer's name did surface during our investigation, and we looked into any potential connections he might have had with Epstein and his activities.

581 Q: What kind of information did you find regarding Henk Kramer's involvement or presence in relation to Epstein?

582 A: There were indications that Henk Kramer might have been present on Epstein's private island, and we were exploring the veracity of these claims to determine the extent of his involvement.

583 Q: Can you share any details about the witnesses or evidence that pointed towards Henk Kramer being on the island?

584 A: We interviewed several witnesses who claimed to have seen Henk Kramer on the island during certain periods. Additionally, we were examining any corroborating evidence such as photos or documents that might support these claims.

585 Q: How crucial is it to establish Henk Kramer's presence on the island in the context of the broader investigation?

586 A: Confirming Henk Kramer's presence on the island would be significant as it could potentially link him to the illicit activities taking place there and shed light on the network of individuals associated with Epstein.

587 Q: Have you been able to question Henk Kramer directly or obtain any statements from him during the course of your investigation?

588 A: As of now, we have not been able to question Henk Kramer directly. Our efforts to reach out to him are ongoing, and we are exploring all avenues to gather more information about his potential involvement.

589 Q: What challenges have you encountered in the process of investigating individuals like Henk Kramer?

590 A: Investigating individuals associated with Epstein, especially those not readily accessible, presents challenges in terms of obtaining cooperation and accurate information. Legal complexities also contribute to the difficulties we face in certain cases.
